

Dog Licensing Changes Coming In 2011

Dog License Year
January 1, 2010 ~~X~~ December 31, 2010

Starting in 2011

Dog License Year will now coincide with your dog's rabies vaccination expiration date

For example, if your dog receives a 1-year vaccination on February 15
Your license year will be March 2011 – February 2012

New Fees and Options

- 1-year license - $12.00 spayed/neutered ($24.00 – unaltered)
- 3-year license (with 3-year rabies)- $36.00 spayed/neutered ($72.00 – unaltered)
- Service Dogs (with documentation) – No charge

Renewal of 2010 Dog License

If you currently have a 2010 dog license, you will receive a special renewal notification in the mail by December 1. Anyone renewing a 2010 license will have special, one time monthly pricing ($1 per month – spayed/neutered or $2 per month – unaltered) to convert their licensing date from December 31 to the expiration of the current rabies information on file.

For example, if your dog's vaccination expiration date is September 3, 2011

Your license year will be January 2011 – September 2011

9-month license for $1 per month – $9 - spayed/neutered ($18.00 – unaltered)
